Curious George
kidnapped

By Curious George

Curious George was kidnapped by the dragon Sunday after the wedding of Opus and Cozyheart. King Richard decided to form a police force because of this. The other inhabitants decided to save me by themselves to keep it from happening! They say it's the only reason but I think my amazing mind and handsomeness had something to do with it.

War breaks out

by Steamboat Dog

The war against the dragon is finally over. Many of the animals in the makeshift army were injured by the dragon's new explosives. The dragon was finally subdued by repeated blasts while he was away from his cave.

Mishits saw babies, celebrities fail
by Steamboat Dog

When the babies were taken by the dragon the celebrities just sat around but the mishits went out to save them. What does this tell us about the celebrities? That they're useless! Why do we have them?

Mom Turtle sick (sore!) by Curious George

By Rocky Squirrel

Mom Turtle said she has the plague again. She sees any type of rodent and she goes berserk in her ear-splitting shriek. "I got the plague, I got the plague!" I've heard people say she needs help. She does but I doubt it would make a difference. So be ready for more ear-shattering shrieks in the future.

Flood

by Rocky Squirrel

a flood hit us yesterday when the dam broke. We had to make it to high ground fast, but how? We were aided by Popple and the humans until the dam broke then the aquatic animals and the acrobat bears helped us. Thanks to them!

Restoration after the flood

by Curious George

The aquatic animals helped rebuild the dam but restoration of Bunny Factory is another matter. So far most of it is repaired. Fortunately a bit of Bunny Factory is on high ground so it won't be long. Especially with me.

The secret lives of celebrities

I wanted to observe Opus and his wife Cozyheart away from work. But how? I ended up taking a peek through their window after following Opus from the car. This is what I heard and took pictures of:

Cozyheart: Late again! I don't know why I put up with you!

Opus: Right dear. (Sighs!) Oh look, here's the bed. (Blegh) zzz Cozyheart: Look what you did! Now I'll have to clean this up! You, you, arghh!

I was wondering, What do Chip 'n' Dale do when they're not driving Donald Conkers? So I went over to their tree, ate a few acorns and watched them. This is what I heard and took pictures of.

Dale: Hey, Chip go out the door

Chip: Okay. (Kong!) Why you!

Dale: Ha, Ha - (Caw) Ding, Koo, Koo.

Chip: Ha, Ha, Ha!

We know it hurts, but,
